MARCIE R. RENDON

As part of the Glendale Library, Arts & Culture Be the Change Series, author David Heska Wanbli Weiden will discuss his new novel Winter Counts. It is the story of a local Native American enforcer on the Rosebud Indian Reservation who becomes obsessed with finding and stopping the dealer who is bringing increasingly dangerous drugs into his community. It's a Native thriller, an examination of the broken criminal justice system on reservations, and a meditation on Native identity. Winter Counts received rave reviews from New York Times, Los Angeles Time, O, the Oprah Magazine, Washington Post, BuzzFeed, AARP Magazine, and Time Magazine.

Marcie R. Rendon is an award-winning author with an extensive body of fiction and nonfiction works as well as a fresh new murder mystery series.

BE THE CHANGE SERIES: Inclusion – Diversity – Equity – Antiracism

BE THE CHANGE events will build collective understanding of systemic racism, elevate the voices and stories of Black, Indigenous and People of Color (BIPOC), and inspire our community to be the change. They are led by Glendale Library, Arts & Culture in partnership with the Southern California Library Cooperative and the Glendale News-Press.

BE THE CHANGE SERIES is sponsored by the Glendale Arts and Culture Commission, with funding from the Urban Art Fund.
