WRITE YOUR OWN HAIKU!

A haiku is a simple three-line poem with seventeen total syllables.

1st line: 5 syllables   2nd line: 7 syllables   3rd line: 5 syllables

Can you finish these haikus by writing your own five syllable line? There is no right or wrong way to do this. Just write whatever makes you feel good!

HERE'S AN EXAMPLE TO GET YOU STARTED!

KITTY-CORN

With a paper horn
Tied onto her fuzzy head
Kitty feels complete

A CAT AT NIGHT

A pair of green eyes
Kitten feet as quiet as rain

---

DANCING STEED

Unicorn swishes
Unicorn trots and prances

---

FRUIT SALAD

Gecko likes mangos
Parakeet likes pineapple

---

HIDE AND GO SEE

Kitty hides right here
Unicorn hides over there

---

NAP TIME

Unicorn curls up
Kitty stretches out beside him

---

If you don't get exactly
five syllables, don't worry!
In poetry, rules can always be broken.

For Example

Line one should have five
And line two should have seven
Oh well!
